

2021 Locust Grove Fall Encampment

Demonstrator Agreement/Application

Application deadline: October 15th, 2021 (late applications will be wait listed and notified if space if available)

Set up: Friday, October 29th
Saturday, October 30th PRIOR TO 8am. All vehicles must be OFF site by 8am!

Tear down: Booths may tear down after close of event 5pm on Sunday October 31st.

Please email back to: lance@lanceminnis.com

Thank you for your involvement with the 2021 Locust Grove Fall Encampment Revolutionary War event. The event is centred on a weekend long living history portrayal of the Armies going into winter quarters near the home of the prosperous Croghan family. Civilians, camp followers, hawkers, vagabonds, entertainers, sutlers (petty and grand), and gawkers all arrive to view the troops on parade and seek their fortune from the proximity of the troops.

Business/Organization Name: _____

Business/Organization Website: _____

Contact Name: _____

Contact Address: _____

Contact Phone(s): _____ Contact Email: _____

Setup Space Requirements: _____

Type of Tent/Setup: _____

How many volunteers/employees are working your space(s)? _____

Do you have special needs? Please be specific. _____

All vendors are invited to camp on-site (you must provide your own camping set up). Will you be camping? _____

Unless otherwise arranged, entertainers will be asked and expected to wander the camp throughout the day performing. There are no scheduled performance times, but we ask you put in a minimum of 3 thirty minute sets per event day. Be respectful of where and when others are performing and/or demonstrating.

A LIMITED number of Saturday evening meal tickets are available for pre-purchase. The meal will be prepared by the Locust Grove kitchen demonstration during the course of Saturday the 30th, and will consist of a period one pot meal with period appropriate sides.

How many meal tickets would you like to prepurchase? _____

Meal ticket money may be sent via Venmo to @Lance-Minnis or via PayPal to PayPal.me/LanceMinnis

By signing this agreement, all participants agree to remain in 18th century clothing from reveille Saturday morning through Sunday close, as well as keeping modern items/anachronisms out of sight. All food and drink will be in a period vessel, with no modern packaging in sight at any time. No cigarettes or cell phones in view or evidence, no modern/anachronistic items for sale or display, or camp furniture the same regardless of whether it is public hours or not. Camp will be monitored and anything not period will be asked to be put away.

Lance Minnis (for Locust Grove)

Demonstrator

Date