

OUR FACILITIES

The Pavilion: Locust Grove's newest event space. Picture your event in the 4,000+ square feet space covered with broad beams arranged to echo the distinctive branching of the Honey Locust trees Locust Grove is named for. Limestone chevrons on the western wall echo the angles in the trees and reference the importance of limestone in the area's history. The Pavilion is 56' x 80' and includes ample electrical outlets, lighting and fans — great for events of up to 250 guests, seated.

EVENTS & RENTALS

MAKE HISTORY OF YOUR OWN

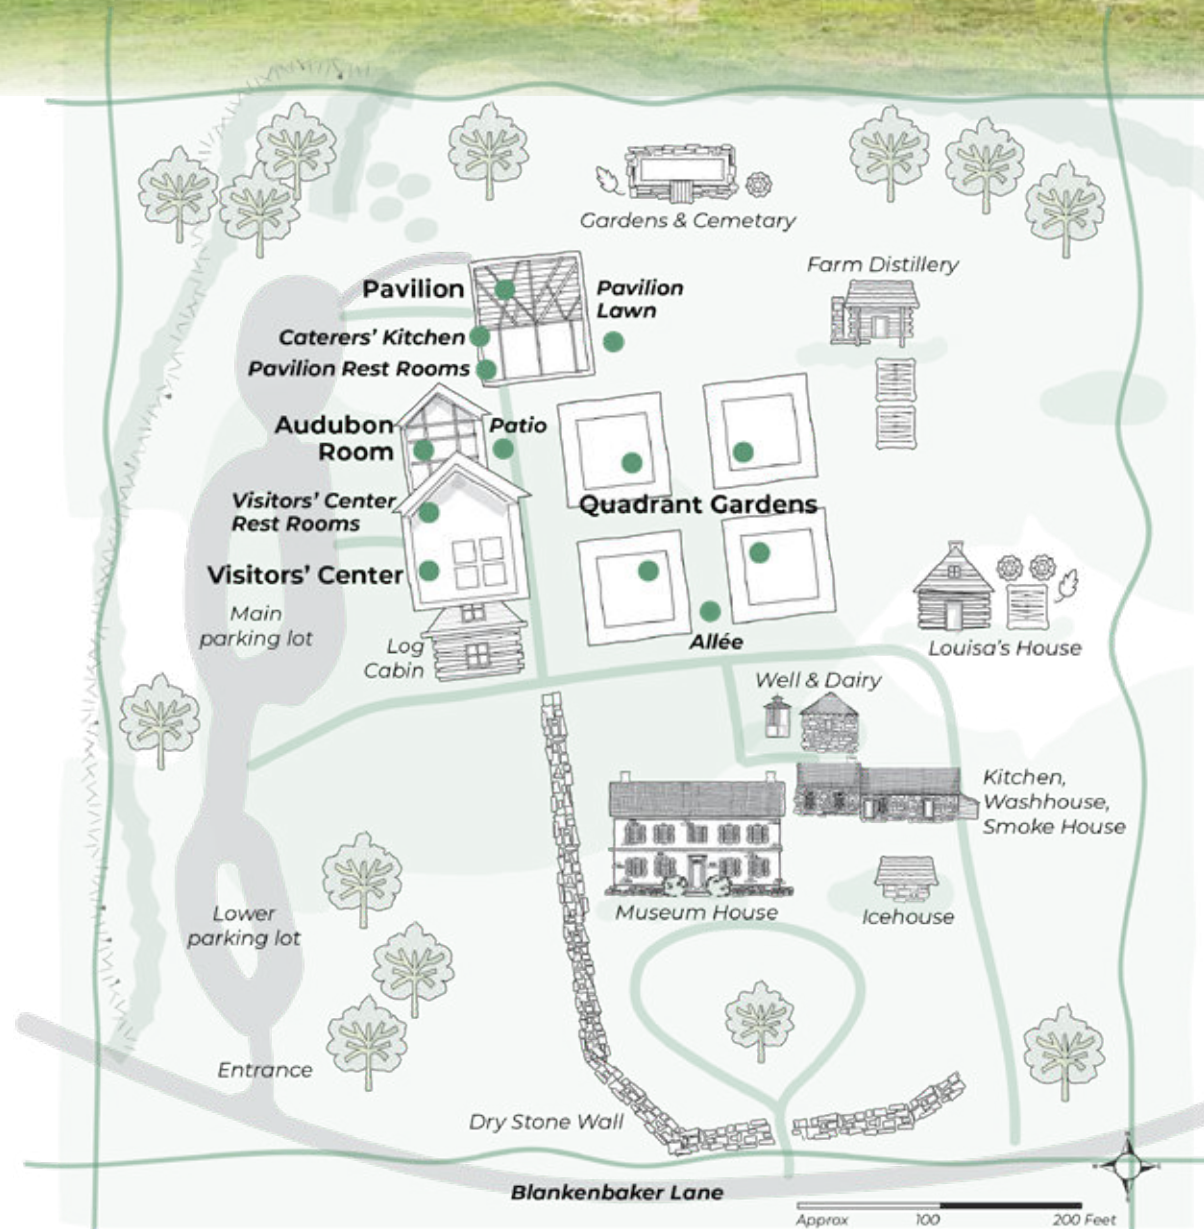

Whether you're planning a wedding, family reunion, corporate retreat, charity fundraiser, or something else, let us add your story to the histories of Locust Grove.

The Grounds: Locust Grove's 55 rolling acres of fields, lawns, gardens, and orchards are a peaceful oasis just a few miles from downtown Louisville.

The Quadrant Gardens: Want an open-air space with the privacy of a room? With walls of shrubs and bushes, each garden has about 75' x 75' of lawn inside with dappled shade for ceremonies or receptions. The two quadrants nearest the Visitors' Center will accommodate 60' x 40' tents with about 150 people for a seated dinner. Without a tent, up to 250 can be seated.

Allée: At the center of the quadrant gardens, the Allée is a popular wedding ceremony location. A walkway of viburnum and Sweet Bay Magnolia line the path to the aisle, the perfect frame for photos of guests and the bride alike. The 200' dogwood-lined Allée provides a broad expanse of grass with a view of Locust Grove's historic house museum. Ceremony space is about 30' x 60' for around 250 people seated theater-style. Reception space is about 30' x 200' and comfortably seats anywhere from 25-500 people for dinner.

The Visitors' Center: A modern building with modern amenities. Windows in broad ash frames give the 20' x 30' lobby an airy, outdoorsy feel as you travel through, providing a passage from the modern world to Louisville's past. Just off the Visitors' Center lobby, the brick patio alcove is the perfect spot for a small dinner party or small wedding ceremony.

Audubon Room: Locust Grove's indoor event space named after one of the site's most memorable visitors. The Audubon Room has a working fireplace flanked by two sets of doors that lead to The Quadrant Gardens. Spacious enough to seat up to 150 for dinner, 130 for a reception, or more than 200 for a cocktail party.
